CLYDE HIGH

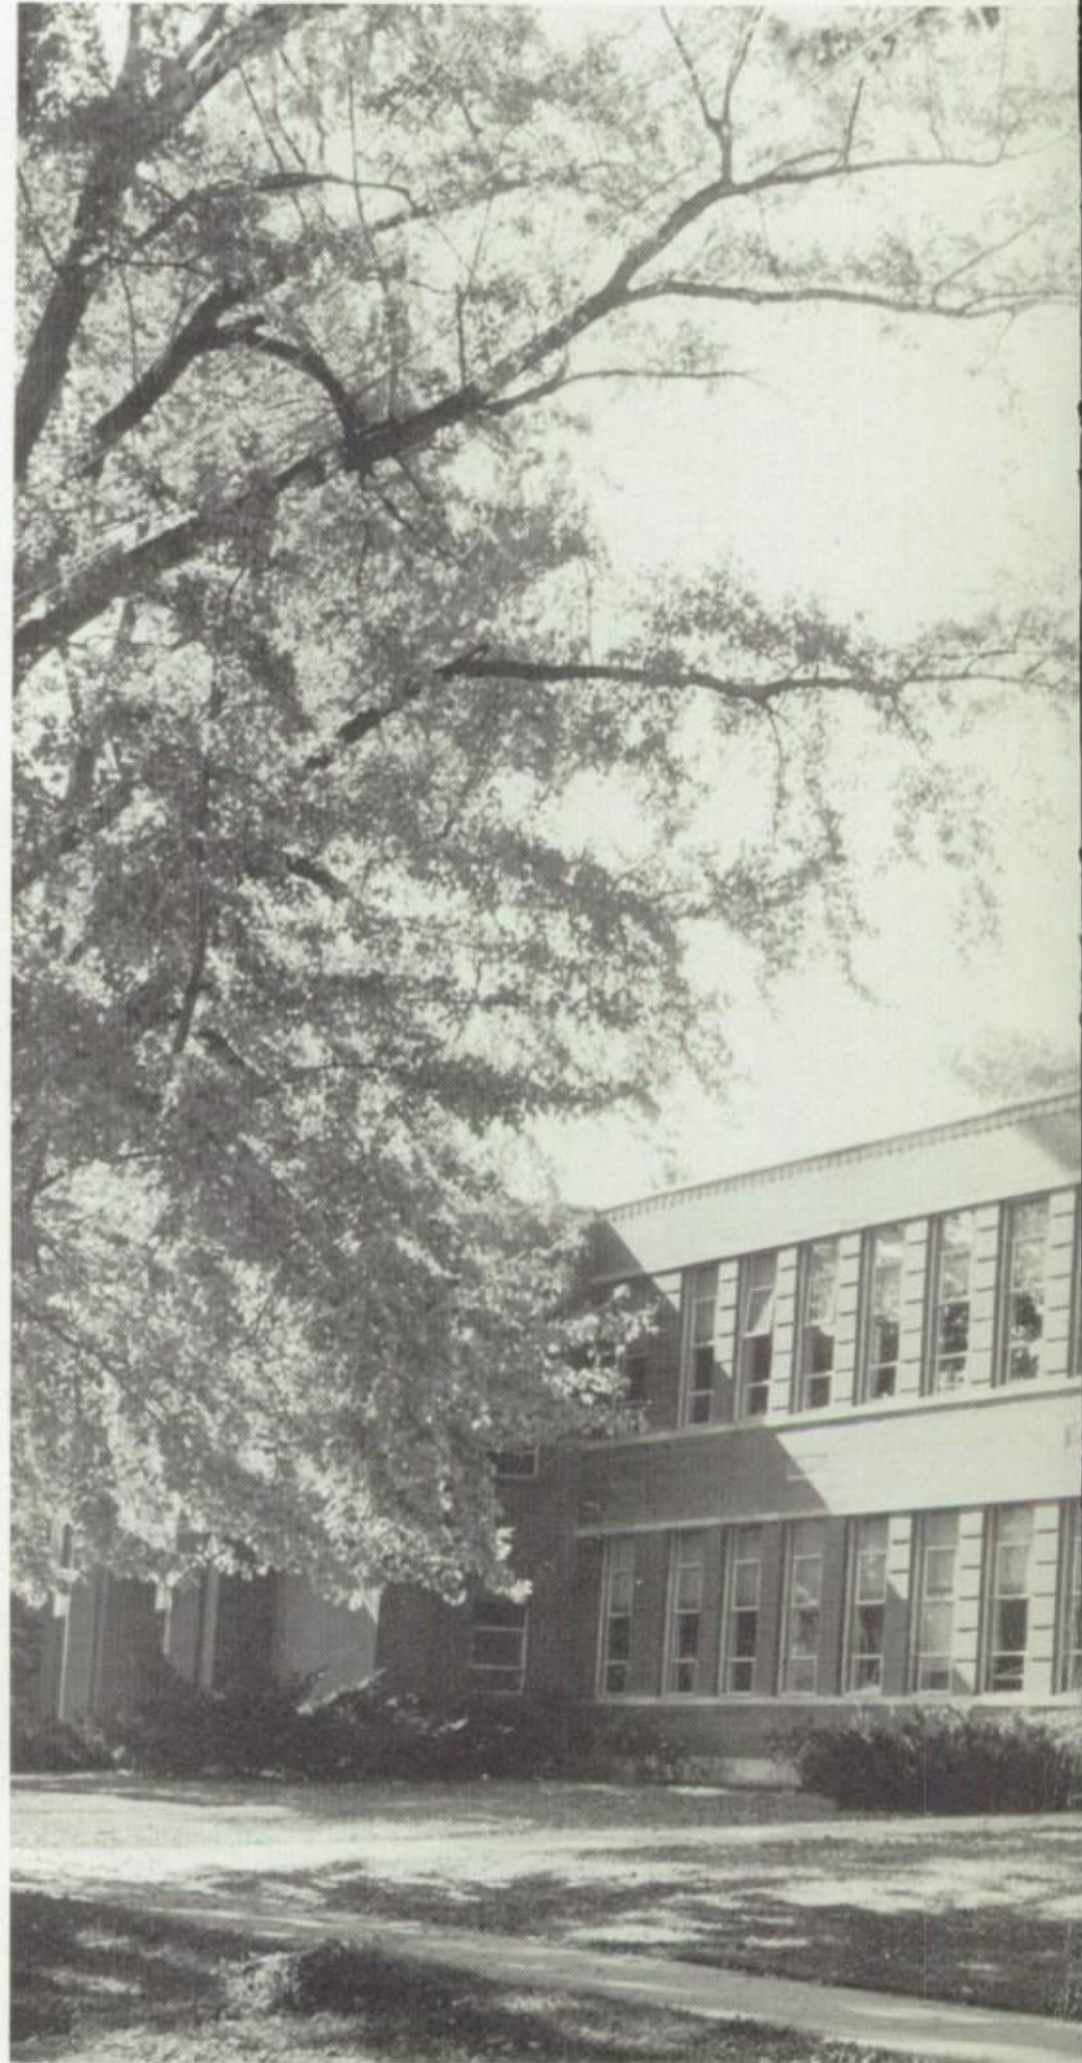

This is our school. In this building we have spent a major portion of our lives. Here we have the opportunity to prepare ourselves for the future. What is done with that opportunity is for each student to decide for himself.

Just what does this building mean to you?

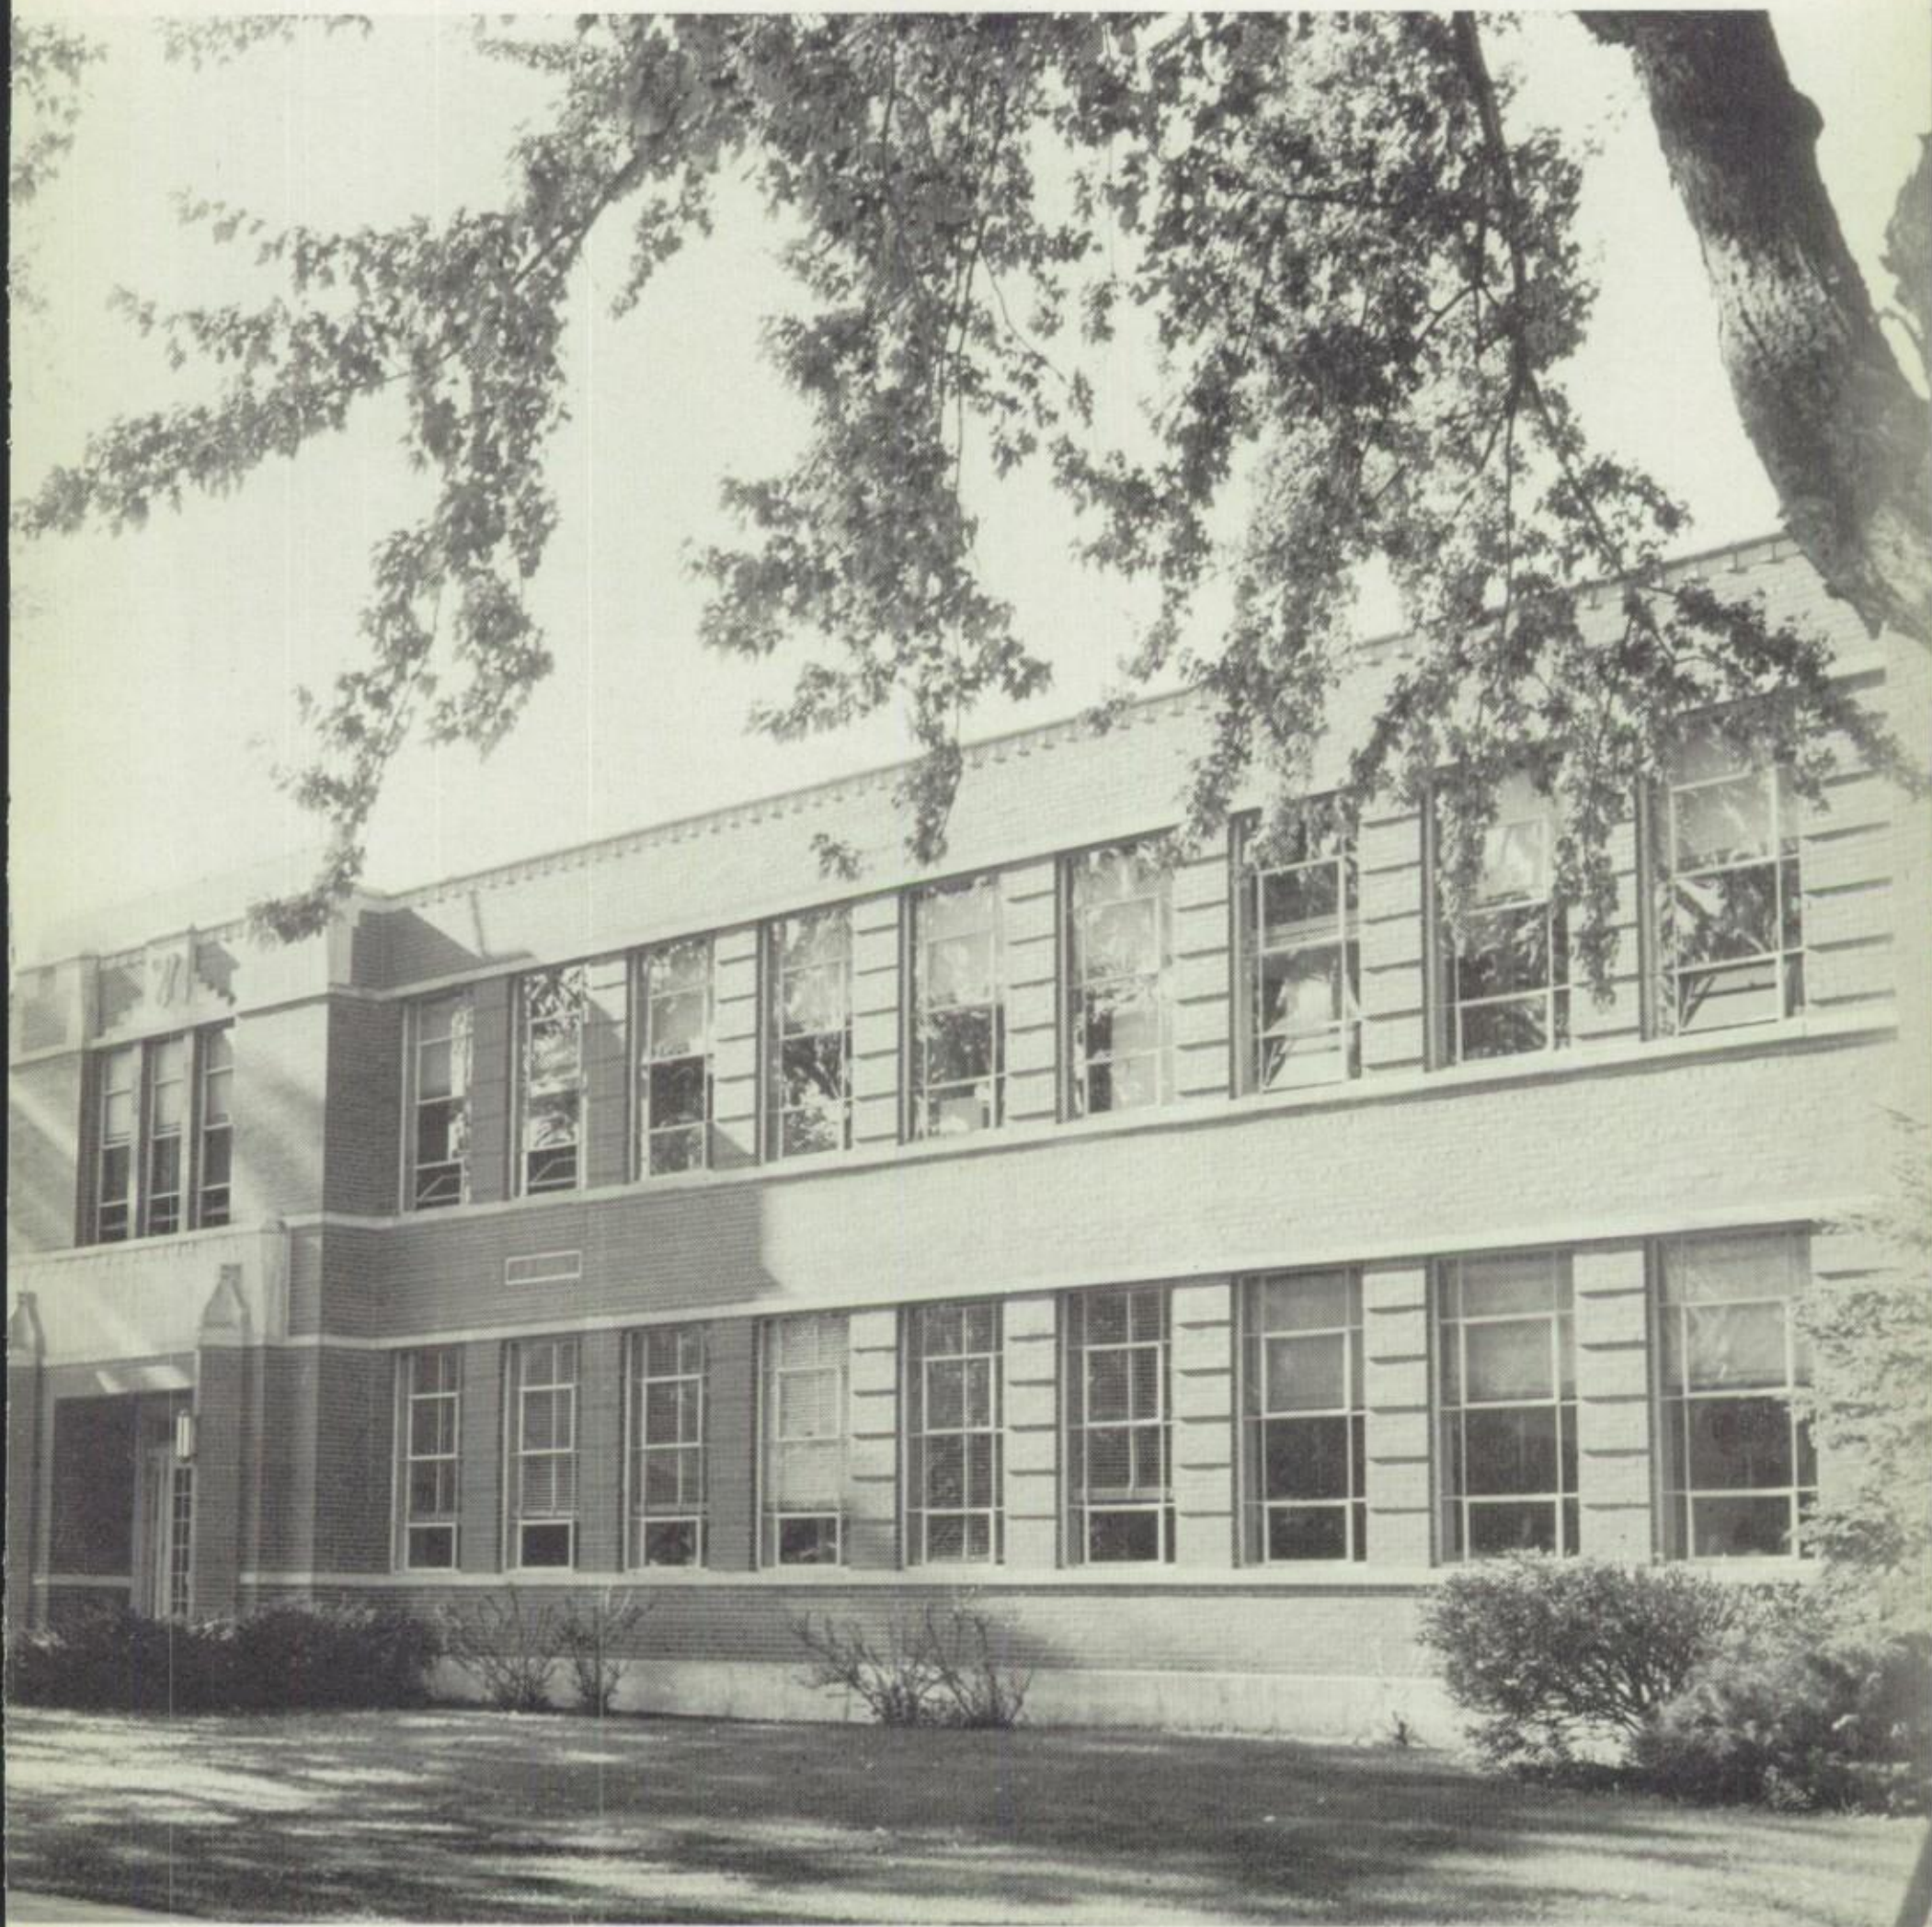

Your answers to that question might well determine the type of character mold that you have made for yourself.

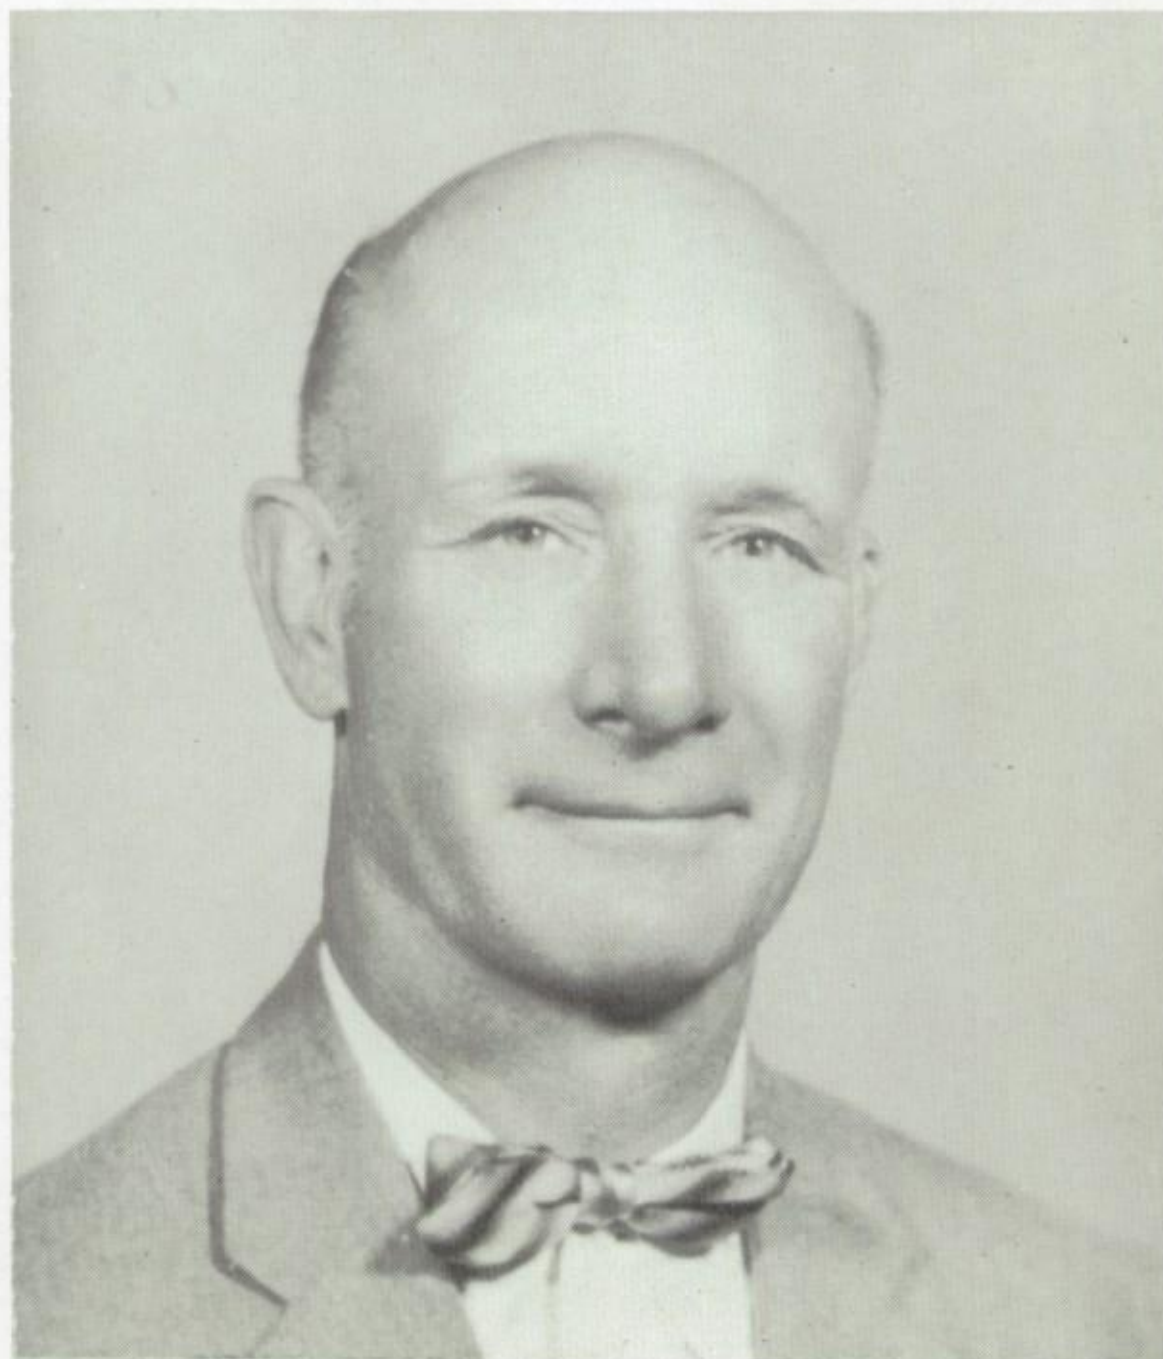

Let's take a look at the interior of our school where we find what makes it more than a building. The heart of our school is the will to learn. You can hear its pulse beat in the knowledge that comes from that willingness. If our school could speak, it would tell a story that has effected thousands of Clyde High students both past and present.

But wait a minute! Our school can talk! This book that you have in your possession right now is its voice. If you listen carefully, you will be able to hear its voice on the following pages. Let's see what it has to say about the school year 1958-1959.

SCHOOL 1959

Dedication

This year the class of "59" is happy to dedicate our 1959 Courier to Mr. Arthur W. Hendricks. We are proud to say that Mr. Hendricks has been associated with Clyde High School for nearly 21 years. During that time he has done much to promote our athletic activities.

He was born in Harrod, Ohio, and received his high school education in Findlay. He entered Ohio University in 1927 and graduated in 1931. He participated in such sports as tennis, football, and wrestling.

He began his teaching career in Gibsonburg in 1931 where he taught for three years. Then after teaching at Ada, Ohio a few years, he came to Clyde in 1938. He received his Master Degree for Education from Ohio State in 1941.

Mr. Hendricks is not only a successful athletic advisor and coach; he also sells insurance on the side. And in addition to all this, he supervises activities at the Clyde Community Park. One of his many outstanding accomplishments would be the fact that he is responsible for the first lighted football field in this area at Gibsonburg.

In all sincerity, we the Seniors of "59" thank Coach for all he has done for the students, the school, and the community.

Superintendent

This is our Superintendent, Mr. Virgil J. Briegel. He has done a fine job of maintaining the high standards of our school, and of heading the school to the best of his ability.

Board of Education

Principal

Mr. Wilbur Sarvis, the principal of our school, works many long, hard hours to perform all of his duties. Judging by his ability, and the results shown, you would never know that this was his first year on this job.

This is our last year of high school and our main objective for this year is to earn enough money to defray expenses for our class trip. As soon as school is out we are planning to board a train for New York. Here we hope to enjoy a fabulous tour of the city.

These officers have been working hard for the benefit of the class, and deserve much praise and credit for their fine efforts.

My, How Things Change!

Moments to Remember

It was a warm fall day way back in 1947 when we tearfully left our mothers at the door of our first grade rooms. What a sad, yet happy, day. The only reason we agreed to stay was because of the promise to teach us to read. The most popular teacher that year was Mrs. Miller, and everyone who got her was deemed "One of the most fortunate."

Remember the wonderful games we played in second grade? There was old witch, high water, low water, and sliding down the coal ramp on icy days. Also there was the crystal, carrot, and sweet potato gardens in Mrs. Boyer's room.

In the third grade we were entertained by magnificent puppet shows. Hey, Pam, how is your Scottish brogue?

Then the fourth year of our confinement. This year we were a bunch of first prize pumpkin heads. Remember Mrs. Wiley's paddle? How about it Ralph, Fran, Terry, and Don? By the way Carl, what did you ever say to get out of it?

In the fifth grade we gave our first stupendous performance. It was a darling Thanksgiving Day play about a colonial tea party. Really a smash hit—running for two days and four home rooms.

Our sixth grade year is one we shall never forget. Mr. O'Harrow's room was one of constant activity. We were Kings and Queens, and we certainly had a royal time. Those who haven't yet broken the habit of saying ain't, couldn't have been in his room.

Every week we had a talent show with semi-finals at the end of each six weeks. Who could forget "Show Boat?" It was our best in our dramatic attempts so far. Also we are sure many girls will recall the fact that Scott Schell and Charles Young were the main cause of many a throbbing heart. The big fad this year was dog collars. In all sizes, shapes and colors, every girl had to have one. Are you still carrying the clarinet cases Terry? Also Kaye, are the rates still the same for a shave and haircut? Of course, no one will ever forget our first boy and girl party at Bill Strong's house.

Now we embarked upon the seventh grade. What a big disappointment—no recesses. But then our first experience of changing classes helped to make up for it. Do you remember Miss Ferninburg? She sat all the cute boys in the front, and the poor girls got ignored for the rest of the period.

Finally we were mighty Freshman—in High School at last! In this year we had as many parties as parents would stand for. They consisted of such educational activities as spin the bottle, elevator, post office, and who could hold the longest kiss. Also this was the year of our first Christmas Formal.

Our Sophomore year went by quickly, for Marilyn Moser came to town. Slumber parties were the big thing on the agenda. Boy, Caren and Alice, you must be quite experienced at that sort of thing by now.

This was now our glorious Junior year. What a thrill it was to select and receive our beautiful class rings. Then was our Junior class play, "Around the World in Eighty Days." Did anyone ever win at those poker games between scenes, Jim, Ann, and Kit? Are you still in the practice of killing Indians with one blow, Russ? Say Pat, are you going in the Olympics as a broadjump champ now? Mary, you sure did a good job of keeping the boy's morale up at play practice. Of course, you will never forget our marvelous prom. It was the greatest moment of our lives as we crossed the little white bridge, and entered an atmosphere of romantic moonlight at "Tropicana." Sandee will be able to start a Matchmakers Society after all her experience on the date committee. Poor Cheryl is probably still tearing her hair out after the job of organizing all those committees. At the end of our Junior year who can forget the terrible collision on Main Street. Caren, Linda, Cheryl and Pill will never forget the car wash they were advertising for when the whole thing happened.

Now, believe it or not, we are the unconquerable Seniors. This is the year we will always hold above the rest—a year dear to our hearts, for it is our year of lasts.

Our last formal, the wonderful prom "Southern Rhapsody," our last play "The Unguided Miss," yet still the first and foremost in our hearts. Our motto is "If God be for us, who can be against us?" The class song is "Beyond the Blue Horizon."

Girls, have you heard about Gertrude?

When the music stops, grab 'em girls.

Here I am again!

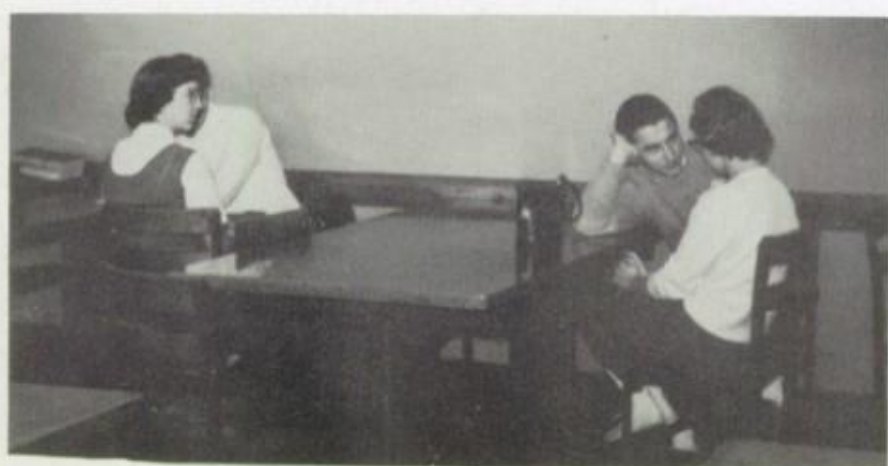

No, I believe this is a orchelimum vulgare grasshopper.

So—I'm hungry.

Dinner anyone?

Turn around and mind your own business.

Your Junior Year is anything but dull. For this is bound to be the most hectic of a high school student's life. We produced our first class play, and choose our class rings. To top the whole thing off we ended the year by presenting a beautiful prom in honor of the Seniors.

FRESHMAN HIGHLIGHTS

This was the first year of our high school life; and as the saying goes we felt a little green in the beginning. But now that we are really in the swing of things and make a point of supporting our school by attending all of its functions, we feel confident that in the future we will make our school proud of us. The "1959" Courier Staff

The Courier Staff for 1959 is composed of competent, hard working students. We are trying our best to produce one of the finest Courier's yet. Under the fine leadership of Pam Brugger our editor, and Mr. Diehl, our advisor, we are confident that our goal can be accomplished. Putting together a yearbook, a good one, is no easy task. It's a long hard process with worry after worry, but we know it will be a success.

We hope that all of you will like the results.

So you tell me why all the shades are pulled?

Under the direction of Mr. Wray, the staff had actual experience in getting out a newspaper, giving news of the activities in the Clyde school system.

Blind Girl's Bluff

and Coffee Breaks

The Clyde Chapter of Future Business Leaders is composed of Junior and Senior girls and boys who are interested in the field of business. They hold monthly meetings at which time they have prominent speakers from the business world and movies which point out correct techniques. These girls are responsible and take charge of the school store that sells supplies to the student body.

The officers for this year are: Marge Kochendoerfer, President; Ruth Dick, Vice-President; Kathryn Meyer, Secretary; Pat Smith, Treasurer; Bonnie McClain, Historian.

This organization is one of the most active and worthwhile in the school. Much credit must be given to Mrs. Rosalyn Carothers, the group's advisor. Her kind thoughtfulness and understanding set a fine example for the members to follow.

The experiences that are shared will prove more than beneficial in the years to come.

BUSY MISSES

Here are the girls that serve as secretaries and office help to our Administration. Throughout the year they have proved to be valuable to the administration of our school. In the process, the girls gain needed experience for their future careers.

Chalk, Gradebooks, and Bobby-Sox

This year the F.T.A. has been a beehive of excitement. Mrs. Baker, their sponsor, has truly made this club into an organization of doing. As one of their projects they had a bake sale to collect funds to help the School for the Retarded.

You may walk down a grade school hall and think that either the grade school children are larger, or the teachers are far younger. You would be wrong in both instances; for the F.T.A. members are really beginning to get practice for their future occupation. They have been helping the grade school teachers with different classes. This year has been an active one for the Future Teachers.

The officers are: Cheryl Kuns—President, Frances Czako—Vice-President, Kaye Brininger—Secretary, Faye Brininger—Treasurer.

There's No Place Like Home

During the 1958-59 season of the Clyde Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America, Bernice Skilliter served as President; Beverly Zwerman, Vice-President; Tina Dickerson, Secretary; Joyce Glumm, Treasurer.

Some of the group's activities included: chili supper, caroling party, first-aid meeting, Mother and Daughter Style Show and Tea, cherry pie contest, and various other activities.

The sponsor of this year's group is Mrs. Allys Goldsmith.

HAVE TRACTOR WILL PLOW

The Future Farmers of America is a National organization of, by, and for farm boys intending to enter related agricultural occupations studying agriculture in high school. It is an educational, non-profit, non-political farm youth organization of voluntary membership designed to develop agricultural leadership, character, thrift, scholarship, co-operation, citizenship and patriotism. Its members learn through participating experiences to conduct and take part in public, to buy and sell co-operatively, and to assume civic responsibility. The FFA is an intra-curricular part of vocational education in agriculture in the public school system.

The local chapter operates a farm for the purpose of giving its members practical experience, operates a credit agency to finance members' projects, operates a thrift bank, and participates in many judging contests on county, district, and state level.

This year our local Clyde chapter is celebrating its 20th Anniversary. Happy Anniversary boys!

The officers for this year are: Randall Depner, President; Richard Dagg, Vice-President; Danny Becker, Secretary; Dave Szakovits, Treasurer; Bill Strong, Reporter; Mark Wott, Sentinel.

Curtain Going Up

Here are the members of the National Thespian Society. They have just received their charter this year. These students are dedicated to advancing the dramatic arts program of our school. Under the direction of G. Kim Ray, their very first project curtailed an evening of one act plays. Their motto is found in one of Alexander Pope's epigrams: "Honor and shame from no condition rise; act well your part, there all the honor lies."

The officers for this year are: Pam Brugger, President; Larry Fredericks, Vice-President; Alice Schwan, Secretary; Karen Thomas, Treasurer.

Band

The members of the band would like to pay special tribute to their director, Mr. Forrest Hale. Mr. Hale has been with our band many years; during this time he has made our band one of the finest in the state. We are truly sad to say that he is going to leave and will not be with us next year. We can only wish on him our sincere hope that he may succeed in his next endeavor.

The year of 1958-59 has not only been successful but exciting. Our band this year appeared in new uniforms at the beginning of the football season. The new uniforms were as snappy and precise in every way as the band itself.

Clyde has a right to be proud of their band. They have made a place for themselves as one of the finest bands in the state. When the All-District Band and Choir Festival was held at Gibsonburg in January, Clyde had the greatest number from any one school present. This was truly a great honor Clyde received.

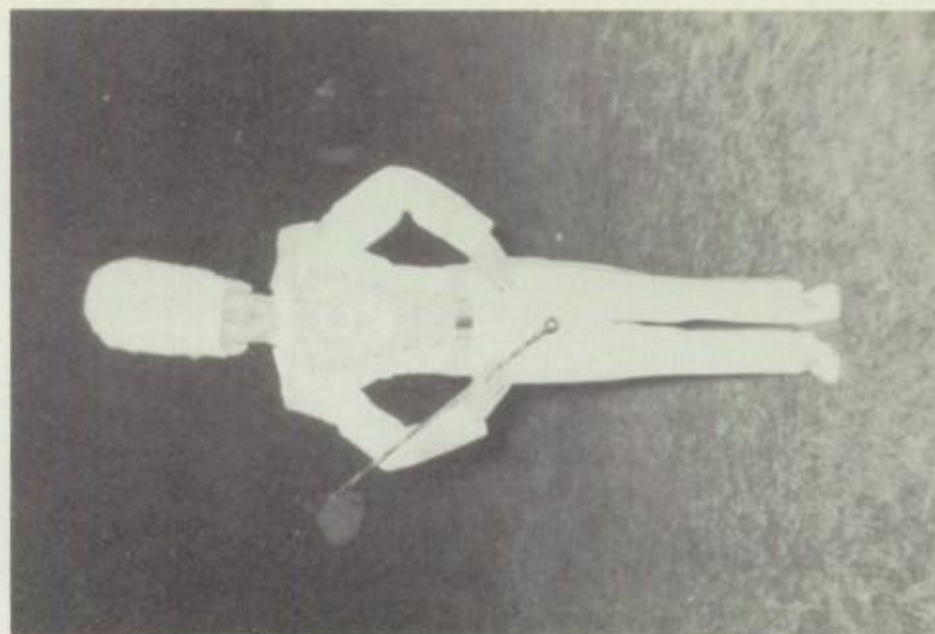

Besides new uniforms, the fine Clyde Music Boosters purchased a Strobacone for tuning all instruments and a fine recorder to record the band so a record can be made and sold.

There are a lot of things most people don't know about our band. For example, we have one of the largest selections of music that a school could have; the percussion section is one of the best equipped in the state; our director is considered by us and by his peers as one of the finest; and the Clyde Music Boosters are the greatest a band could have!

The officers for this year are: Gary Bowser, President; Dave Miller, Vice-President; Ruth Mary Wott, Secretary; and Frances Czako, Treasurer. The Student Director is Don Burkin and he is assisted by Gary Bowser.

Just as an added post-script, ask any band member who "Dirty Don" is.

This year a new figure appeared on the field. Dick Jones, looking sharp and snappy in his white uniform, was our prancing drum major for the year.

“Homecoming

Every year the Clyde High School's student body and faculty look forward to the big Homecoming game and festivities. The date for this year's big event was October 16 through the 18. These two pages are dedicated especially to this occasion.

The picture (top left) features the Homecoming Queen, Miss Pat Dawley (middle), with her attendants, Miss Pat Smith (left), and Miss Cecilia Davis (right).

A snake dance on the Thursday before the game lead off the chain of events. Then at the game on Friday, Miss Pat Dawley was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1958. The last event was the dance on Saturday night at which the royalty reigned. The picture on the right features the lovely Patricia Dawley, Her Royal Highness.

The boys showed plenty of action.

Varsity Cheer Leaders

Throughout the year these girls have done much to promote our athletic activities. During football and basketball seasons they highlighted pep rallies to build up the morale and fighting spirit of the team and student body. They have also created an air of good sportsmanship at all games, home and away. Pat Dawley, Senior cheerleader, will be missed in coming years for her ability and hard work.

Varsity Football

Here are Mr. Salisbury's comments on the 1958-59 football season.

In some ways the year turned disappointing, but in other ways we shined. Our four Senior starters, Charles Young, Dorr Scheerer, Jim Ernsberger, Bob Smith, did a tremendous job for us. Dorr Scheerer took honors by being selected for the S.B.C. All Conference Center, as well as receiving half share in the most valuable Senior award, the other half going to Jim Ernsberger.

We lost six lettermen, but have 17 returning for battle next year. Good luck, Seniors!

Cliff Perrin was undefeated during the regular season. Charles Shaull, Jerry Kastor, Cliff Perrin and Denny Sherk went to the state meet. Coach, John Ladd, has reason to be proud of this group of boys.

Relay Team

880 RELAY TEAM

The 1958—880 relay team was undefeated during the regular season—winning seven consecutive events. The loss of Dan Frias and Dorr Scheerer means a big rebuilding job before the Fliers meet New London in the 1959 opener.

Cross Country

The Clyde Fliers started cross country in 1956. After only three years of competition the Fliers finished their 1958 season undefeated during the regular season by winning seven consecutive meets.

The Fliers finished seventh in the district meet at Lima and Larry Fredericks, Clyde Runner, qualified for the state meet at Columbus. Fredericks finished 70th in the state meet as 211 contestants were entered in the meet at Ohio State University golf course.

Only four members of the 1958 squad will be lost via graduation. They are—Gregory Szakovits, Tom Ross, Terry Dick, and Dick Mesnard.

The 1959 tentative schedule includes Sandusky, Fremont, Toledo Waite, Lima, and Attica.

Varsity Track

The Clyde Fliers track squad finished their 1958 season undefeated with seven consecutive dual meet wins, marking the sixteenth season that the Fliers have recorded a perfect regular season.

The Blue and Gold Thinclads victories were scored as follows:

The 1959 season will a big question mark. If the hurdlers and dash men come through, the Fliers will continue to win—if not, it may be a long, hard season.

The loss of Dick Hunt, Bob Werth, Jim Norman, Monty Fredricks, Jerry Ashton, Kurt Bauer, Dan Frias, Art Fiser, via graduation, and Dorr Scheerer, John Baker, Greg Szakovitz, via overage will be keenly felt.

The Fliers will meet New London, Oak Harbor, Bowling Green, Carey, Willard, and Norwalk during the 1959 season.
